The musical score is written on three systems. The first system is a piano introduction in 2/4 time, marked '8va' and 'p'. It consists of two staves: a treble staff with a melodic line and a bass staff with a rhythmic accompaniment. The second system continues the piano introduction, marked 'mf' and 'Dim.'. It also consists of two staves. The third system is the vocal melody, marked 'loco', with the lyrics 'Ba-by crow-ing on your knee, While you sing some lit-tle di-ty'. It consists of a single treble staff. Below the vocal melody is a piano accompaniment marked 'p', consisting of two staves.

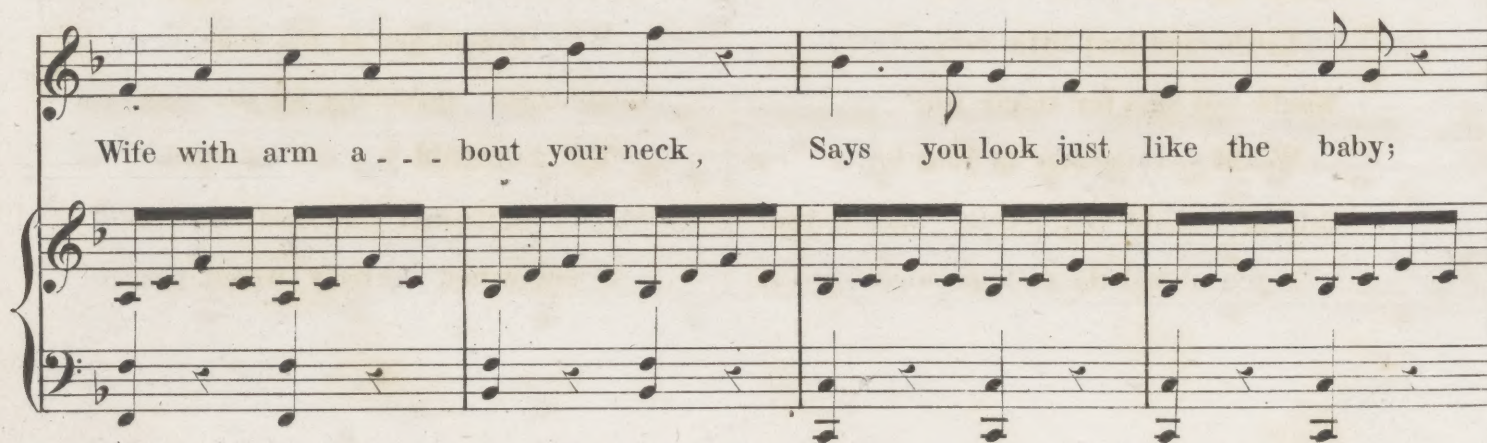

Pulls your hair or thumbs your "ee," Would you think it was not pretty?

Tell me, could you, Tell me, could you, If you owned the baby would you?

gva

Wife with arm a - - - bout your neck, Says you look just like the baby;

Wants some cash to make a "spec., And you would re-fuse her may be?

Could you? should you? Could you? should you? If you owned the woman, would you.

8va

Little labour, little strife,

Little care and little cot;

Would you sigh for single life?

Would you murmur at your lot?

Tell me, should you? tell me, should you?

If you owned "the cottage" would you.

Health and comfort, children fair,

Wife to meet you at the door,

Fond hearts throbbing for you there;

Tell me would you ask for more?

Should you? could you? should you? could you?

If you owned "the baby" would you.
